1983 Prom

Last year's prom was one to be remembered. It was held at the traditional Biltmore Hotel in the Crystal Room. Thanks to the dedicated work of the Senior Class Moderator, Mr. VanGrinsven, it was a huge success. The 1983 prom queen was Kerri Ganem; her court was composed of Terri Bellucci, escorted by Tom McConville, Rusty Jackson and Jan Cespedes, Linda Guy and Darren Costi, Holly Copsey and Richard Padilla. Our crowned queen was escorted by Tom Peters.

1. Grace Quimbita, "1983" Homecoming Queen, dancing with her father. 2. Kerri Ganem along with her father after the announcement of prom queen. 3. Mr. John VanGrinsven, senior class moderator, and his date, Maureen Aldrich. 4. Lauren Khoury and Benjamin Reyes enjoying themselves at their prom. 5. "1983" Prom Court 6. Holly Copsey sharing her excitement with her escort, Richard Padilla. 7. Maria Fiore and Jill Shewmake smiling for the camera.

25th Year Commences With Holy Spirit Mass

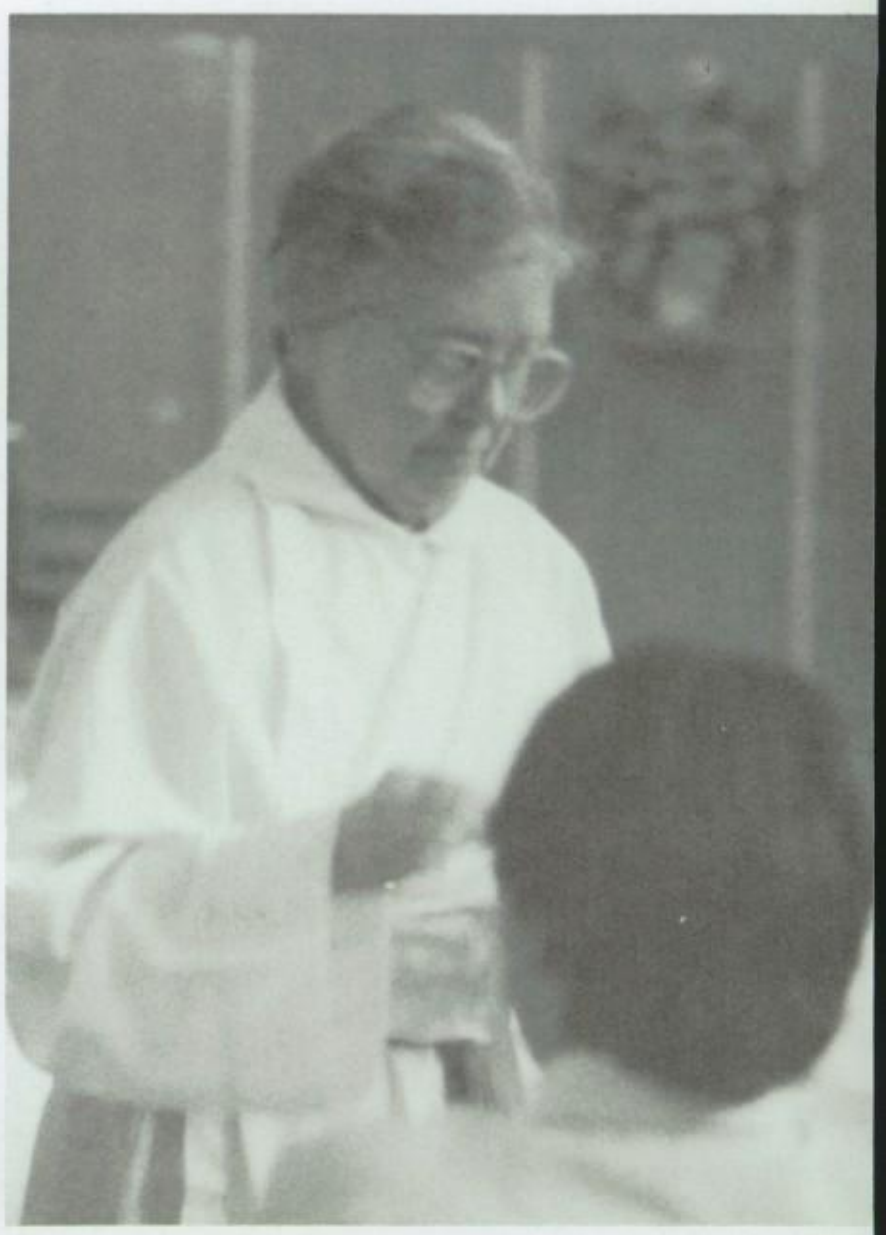
September 7, 1983, marked the spiritual beginning of St. Genevieve's 25th school year. Father Frank, Father Cosgrove, and St. Bridget of Sweden's Monsignor Young were concelebrants of the Holy Spirit Mass. As is traditional, symbols of the school's extracurricular activities were blessed.

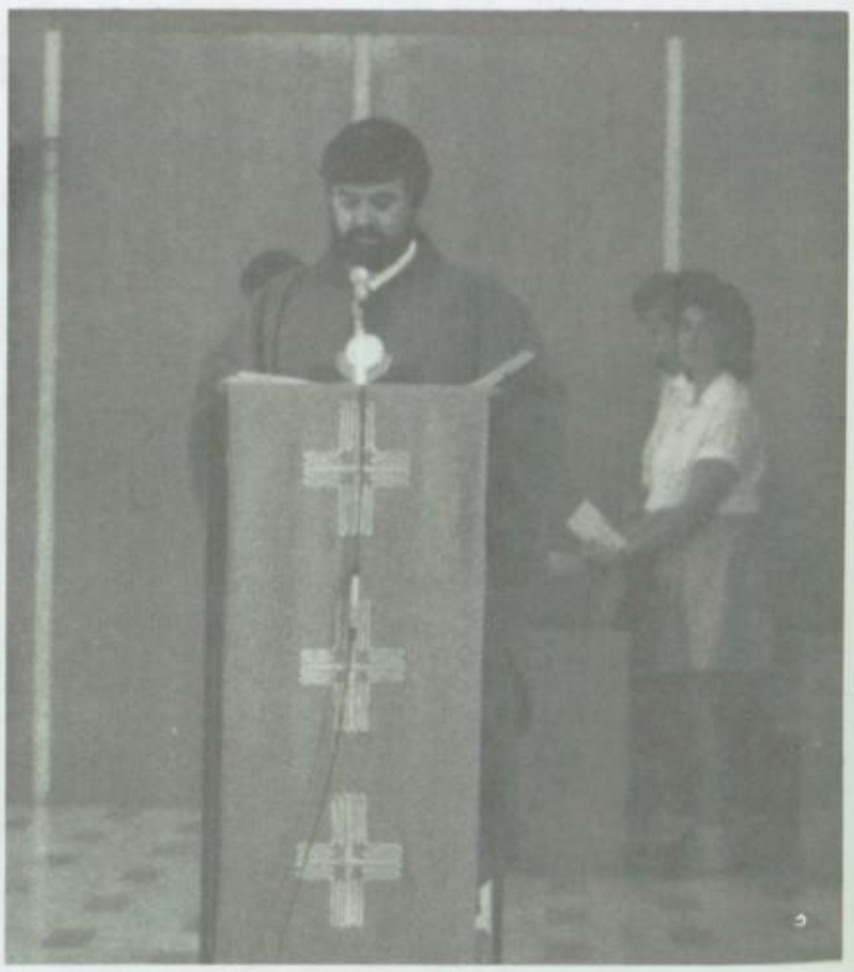
1. Fr. Cosgrove receives the gifts from Eileen O'Hara and Maria Gonzales at the offertory. 2. Amy Lormans reads a petition. 3. Seniors proclaim the good news in song. 4. Courtney Brown and Kim Brady lead the entrance procession. 5. Fr. Frank blesses the school symbols. 6. Fr. Cosgrove, Monsignor Young, Fr. Frank, and Mr. Trujillo. 7. Joel DeGagne and Jon Dedeaux lead the football players into Mass.

Pep Mass

Viva Pep Week

One of the most traditional events of the year is the Pep Mass which introduces the activities of Pep Week. The spiritual activity showed the unity of the student body and faculty, bringing us all together to celebrate our special relationship with God and our school.





1) The choir at work to make the Spirit Mass a success
2) Sr. Margaret Maureen distributing the Holy Eucharist to students
3) Fr. Frank speaking to the student body and faculty
4) Edna Sanchez, Linda Hunten, and Amy Balbona, part of our safari scenery
5) Mario Chavez and Charlie Pankratz discussing with Shodja Kargari the Pep day strategy
6) Marcia Costello, Lucretia Guzman, and Darrin Goode getting into Pep Day spirit
7) Junior guys keeping it cool
8) Junior girls taking part in their Gangster Theme

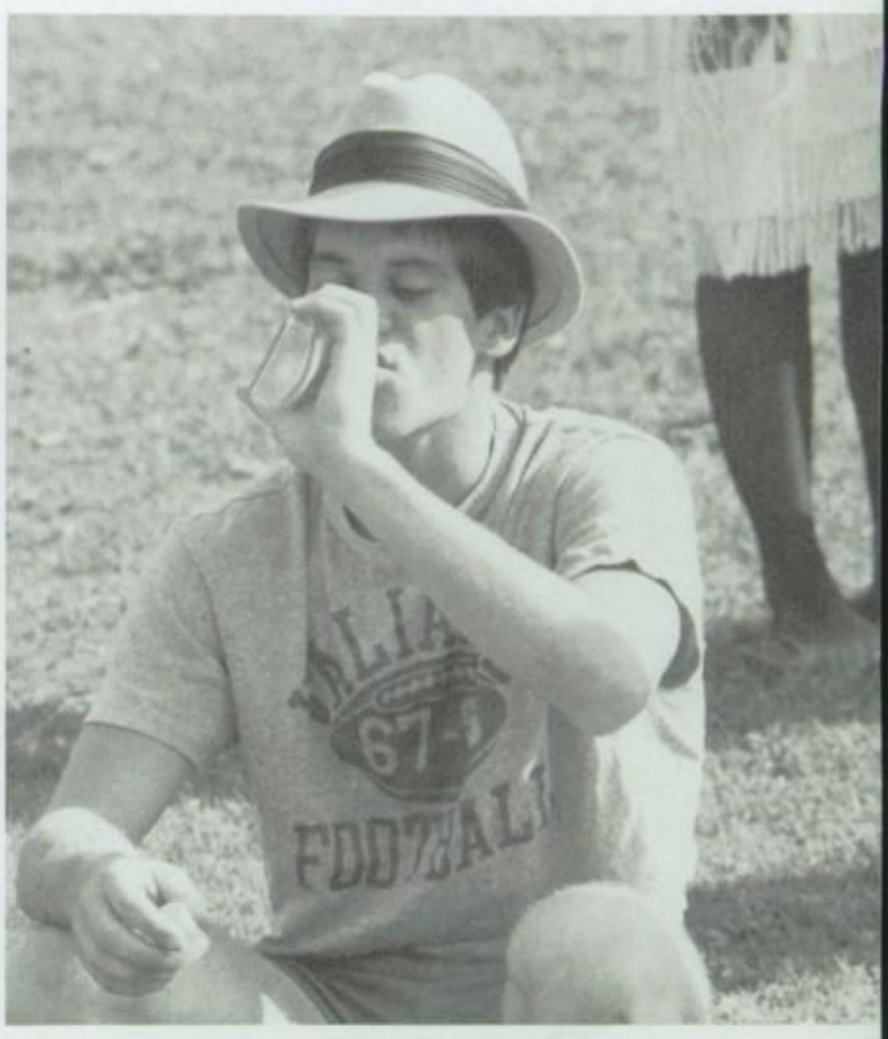
Pep Week Promotes School Spirit

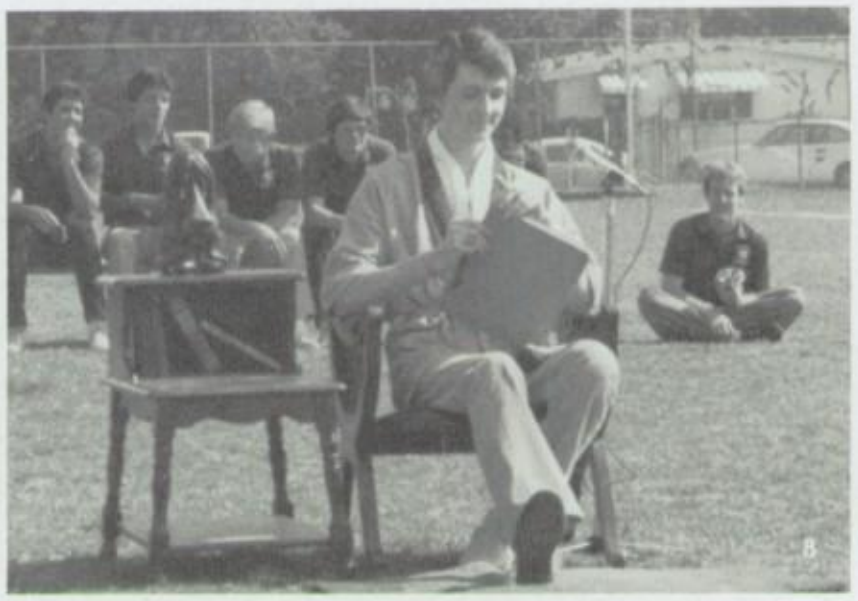
The 1983 Pep Week activities took place October 23-29.

Among the activities in preparation for Homecoming were the football games which were won by the junior boys and the volleyball games which were won by the senior girls.

Pep Day was the last day of the week. Students from all class levels participated in skits, mummy roll, obstacle course, and the ice sitting contest. Everyone joined in at the end of the day for a Pep Rally, where the Mr. and Mrs. Silver and Blue contest was judged with the seniors as the winners.

Pep Week was quite successful in raising the spirit of the students and readying them for the Homecoming Game against Chaminade.



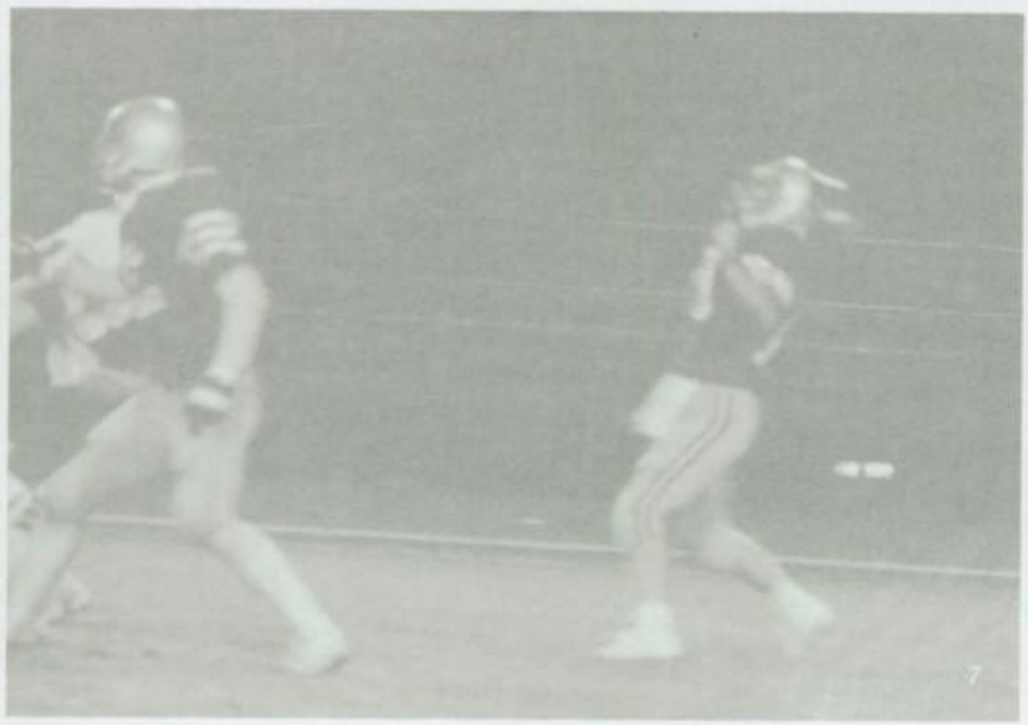


1. Will the real Mr. Trujillo please step forward? 2. Down the hatch 3. Back in the Roaring Twenties with the Junior girls 4. Sara Nitti and her creation Kathy Schuetz 5. Sally Guy and Irmina Gomez hamming it up 6. Sophomore Class Mr. and Mrs. Silver and Blue. 7. Mario Chavez and his impersonation of Father Frank 8. James Burns during the Senior Skit. 9. This is the apple pass, isn't it?

Valiants And Chaminade Battle To A 7-7 Tie

This year's Homecoming Game was played on October 29, 1983, against Chaminade. The Valiants, coming into the game as four point underdogs, tied the Eagles 7-7. Even though the game ended in a tie, it was a moral victory for the Valiants.

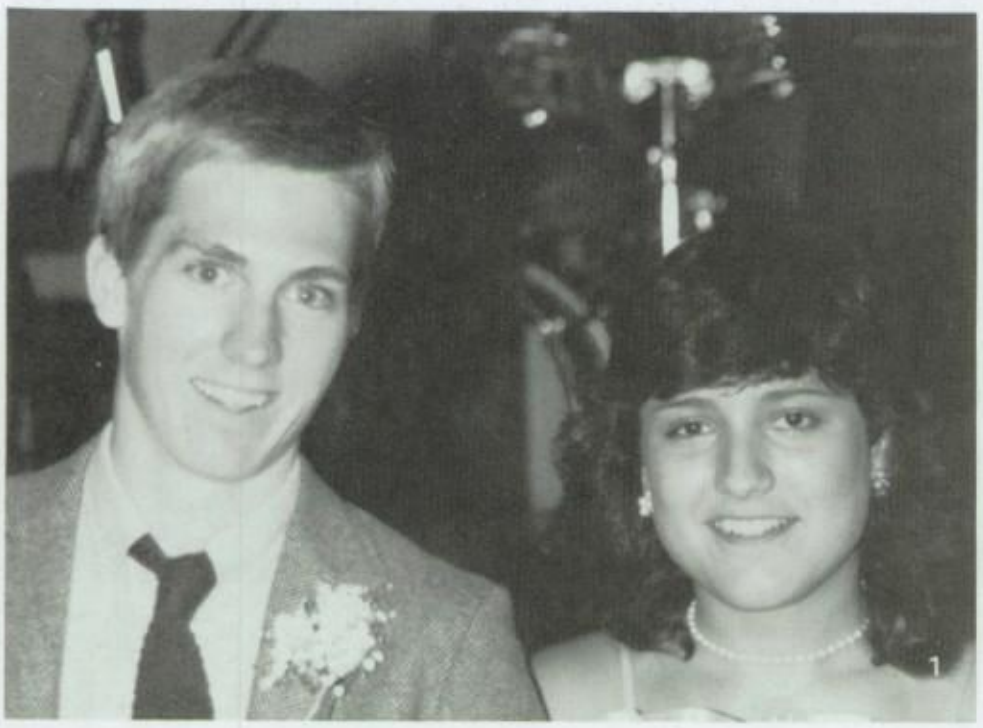
The 1983 Homecoming Court included Patricia Gentz, Rina Lintag, Elena Kneip, Elisa DeLeon, and Queen Shirley Campbell.



1. Tim Lee sprints away from trouble. 2. The 1983 Homecoming court: Patricia Gentz, Rina Lintag, 1982 Queen Grace Quimbita, 1983 Queen Shirley Campbell, Elena Kneip, and Elisa DeLeon. 3. The Valiant offensive line awaiting the snap. 4. Shirley Campbell receives a congratulatory hug from her father. 5. A tough defense stops the Chaminade attack. 6. An excited Mike Schreiner breaks through the sign. 7. Tim Lee drops back to pass

Homecoming Dance 1983

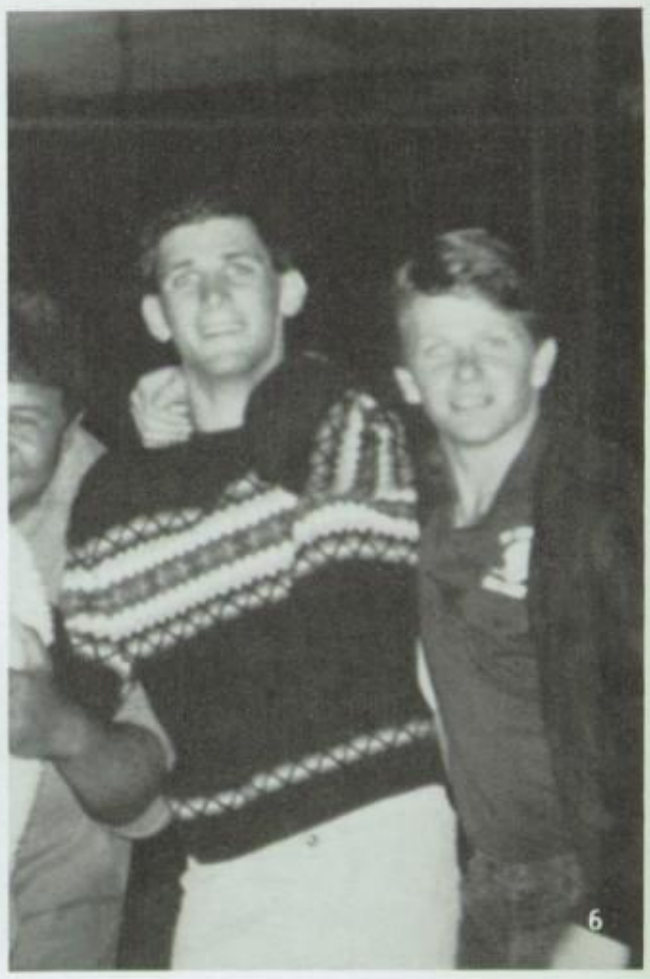
The 1983 Homecoming Dance took place on October 30. It was an unforgettable evening for one and all. Shirley Campbell was crowned the 1983 Homecoming Queen. Very special congratulations to her and all other girls on the court.



1. Patricia Gentz and her escort.
2. Rocking to the beat are Elisa De Leon and Timothy Miller.
3. Grace Quimbita, last year's Homecoming Queen crowns Shirley Campbell, the 1983 Queen.
4. Shodja Kargari and Elena Kneip showing off their pearly whites.
5. Rina Lintag and Dan Zelinski.
6. Tim Rooney and Sheryl Vampa slow dancing.
7. The 1983 homecoming court and their escorts.
8. Sitting this one out, Gail Fenimore and Marcos Del Mozo.

Fiesta A Big Bang

This year the Parish Fiesta grossed more than any previous Fiesta, making this Fiesta a big success. The highest homeroom was Mrs. Dunn's freshmen who attained 132% of their quota and won a free Pizza luncheon. Armando Parrage sold the winning ticket to Mario Quiraga who won the new car.

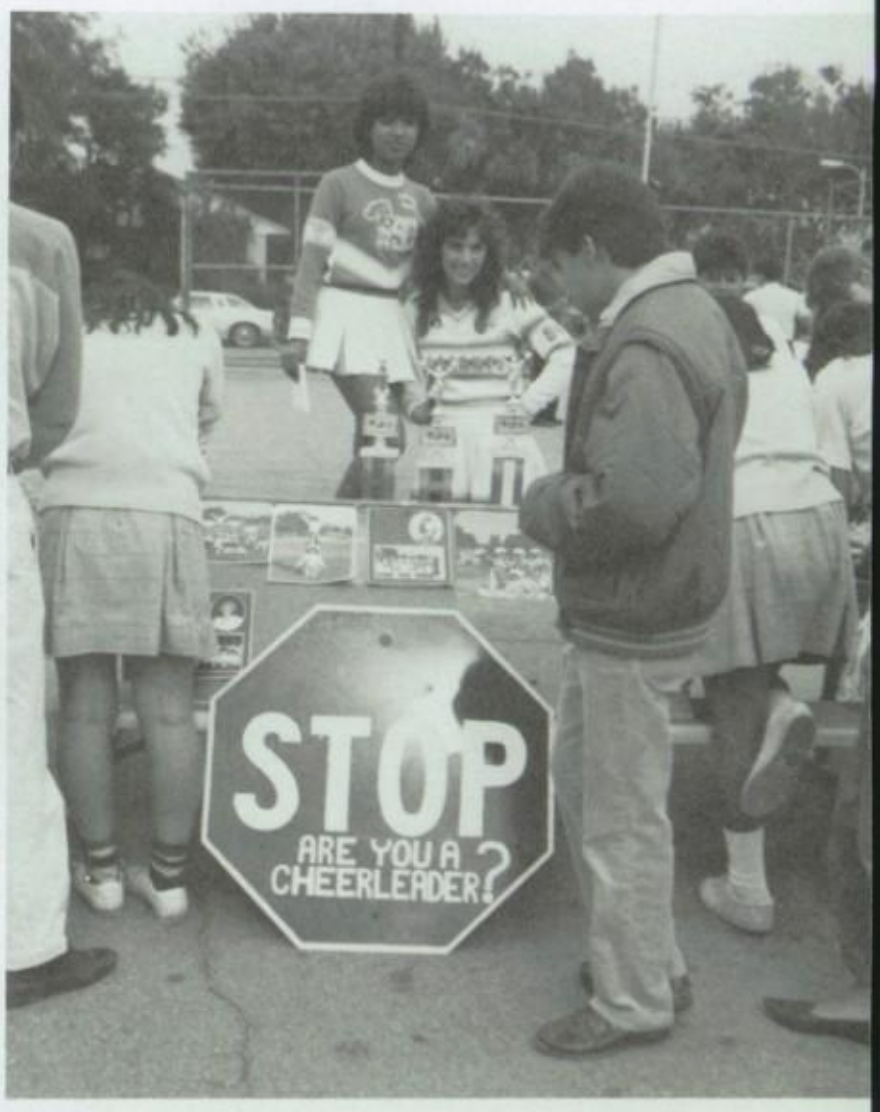


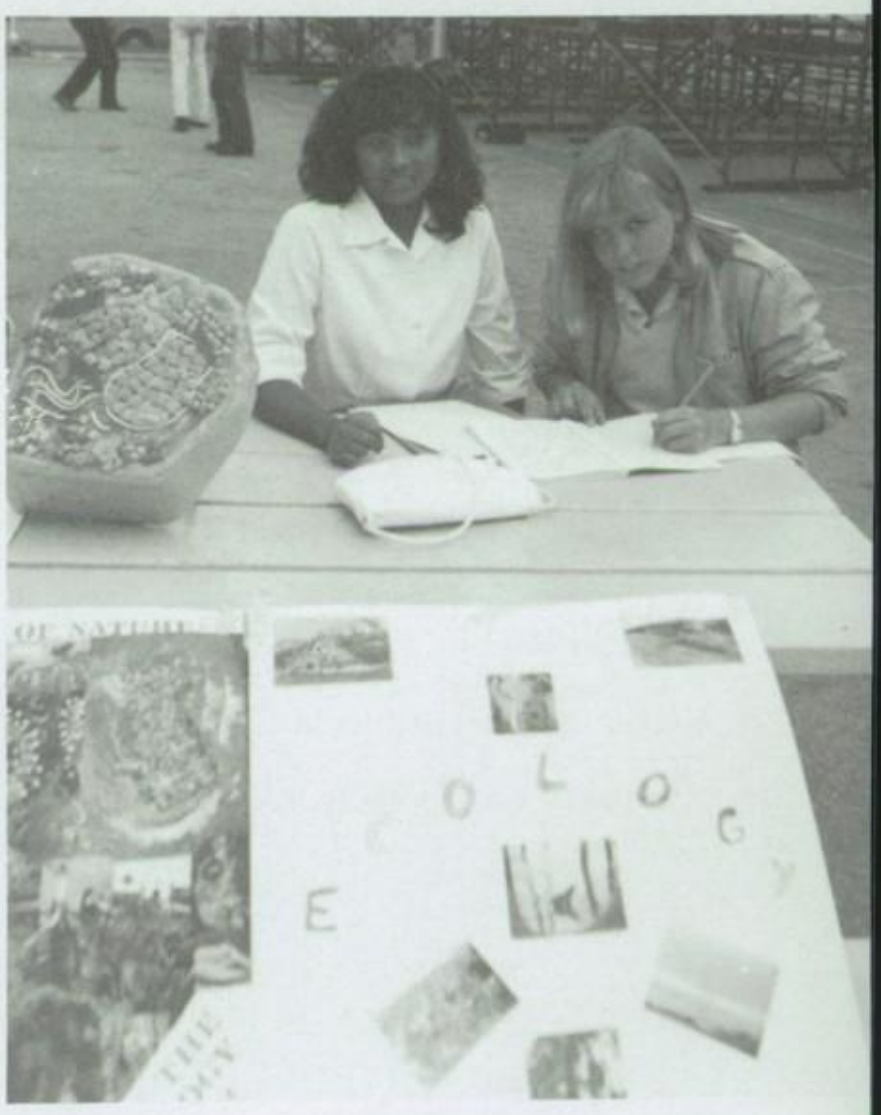
1. Students enjoying the view
2. Sister Angela Clare gives her O.K.
3. Fiesta draws a big crowd.
4. Curious onlookers
5. Sister Eucharia having a good time
6. Students celebrating at the fiesta

Club Day

Comes Alive

After several postponements the ever-popular CLUB DAY was held on Thursday, Nov. 10, on the school campus. Each club demonstrated its purpose and significance to interested students, making the day once more a success.

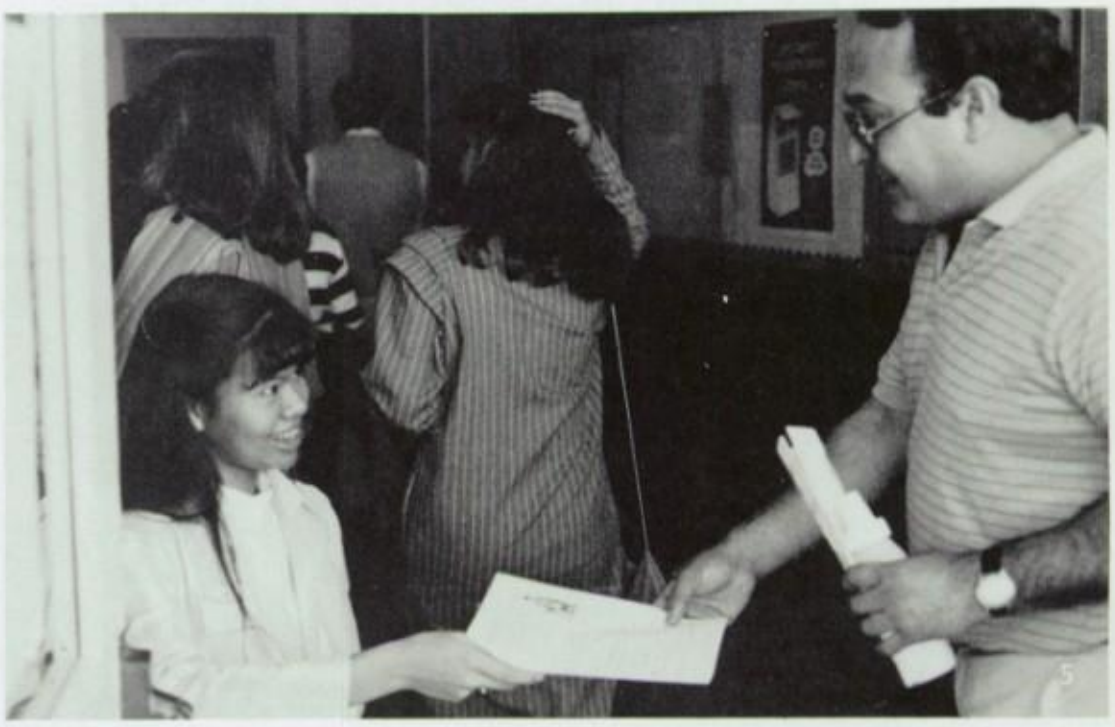




1. Ria Fiore and Rina Lintag recruiting a staff for the revival of the Silver Script 2. Cheerleaders' Club showing off 3. Ecology Club members patiently awaiting nature lovers 4. Seniors Romeo Reyes and Arnel Baloyo signing up for the Lettermen's Club 5. Tricia Gentz and Maria Gomez trying to attract possible club members 6. Cheryl Macrorie and Jana Khoury joining the French Club 7. Drama Club seeking new members for a revival 8. Unity Club setting up for Club Day.

Studio Tours

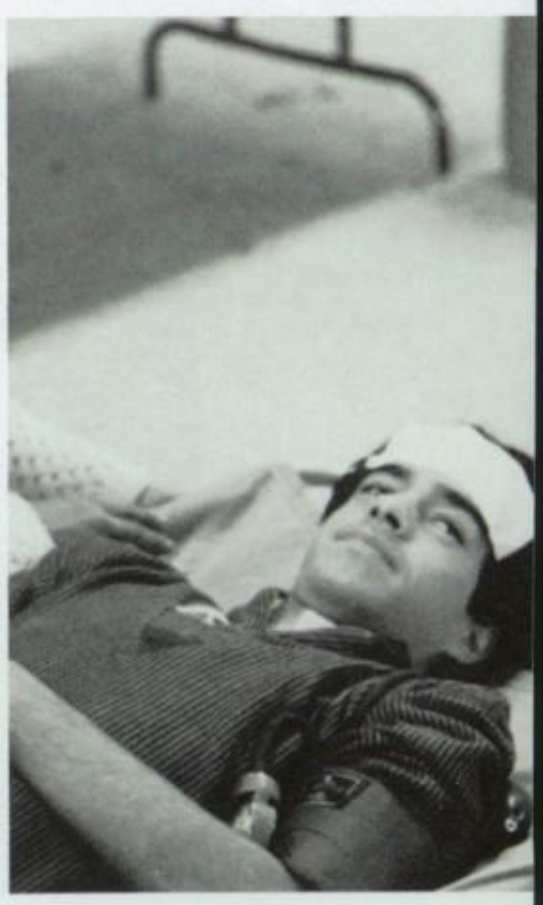
This year's Open House took place on Sunday, January twenty-ninth. Parents and future students came to the school to meet the teachers and explore the wonders of Saint Genevieve High School. The Drill Team put on its performance of the "Safety Dance." It was an adventure for all who attended.

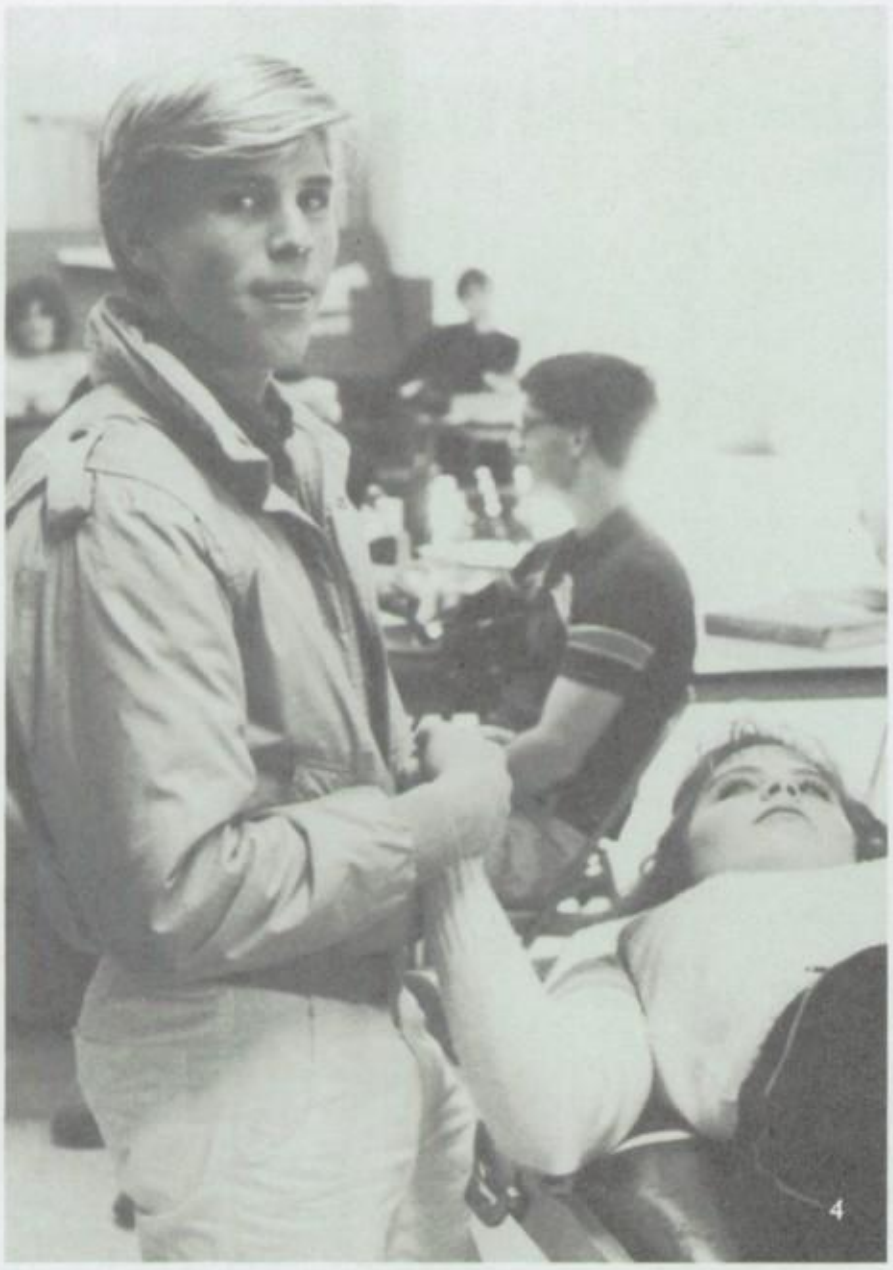


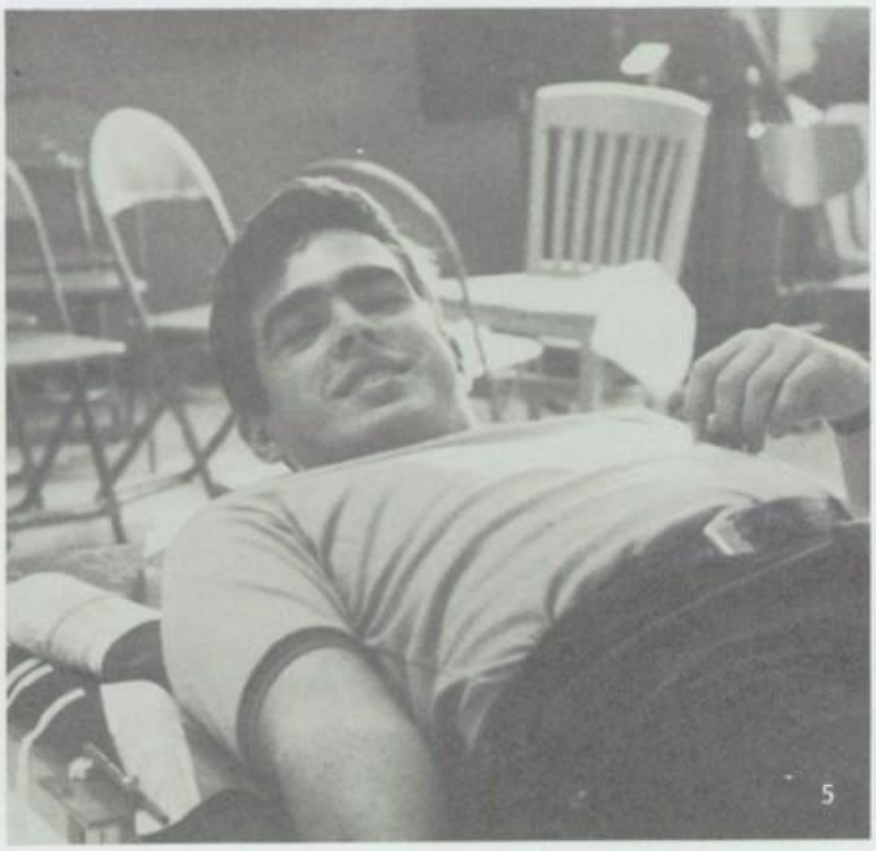
1. Mr. Crow shows the weight room equipment to interested parents.
2. Mr. Feeney talks about the Religion Department of St. Gen's.
3. Viewers enjoy Science Projects.
4. Fr. Frank answers questions.
5. Rina Lintag welcomes visitors.
6. Mr. VanGrinsven answers questions concerning the Math Department.
7. Jeff Paul leads a tour.
8. Shodja Kargari shows parents around.

Blood Drive

Again this year, St. Genevieve's successfully sponsored a Red Cross Blood Drive at Valiant Hall. With Patricia Gentz as chairman and Judy Tjoe as co-chair, two drives were held, in December and May. An exceptional number of donors from both the Junior and Senior classes and the faculty made this community service a great success. The two drives combined, held during school hours, brought in nearly 128 pints of blood.







1. Mr. Denison giving blood while Jana Khoury looks as if she is going to pass out
2. Sally Guy shows enthusiasm
3. Robert Fernandez perking up
4. Terry giving Kim Mirolla support
5. Bill Mitchell about to give blood
6. Maureen McCarthy, saying it's not that bad
7. Cheryl Macrorie expressing pain
8. Janet Zielinski having second thoughts

Mock Trial Team

St. Genevieve's competed for the second year in the Constitutional Rights Foundation's Mock Trial Competition. Under the guidance of Mr. Bailey and a practicing attorney, the Team tied for third place out of 38 schools from the Los Angeles County and successfully made it to the Semi-Finals. Due to the participation and enthusiasm of the team members and the support of the school, this was an enjoyable and educational experience.

1. Mock Trial Team members: (left to right) E. Ellsworth, J. Getti, T. Brosamle, S. Smith, M. Perry, E. Esteban, B. Schreiner, R. Fiore, K. Bailey, S. Kargari

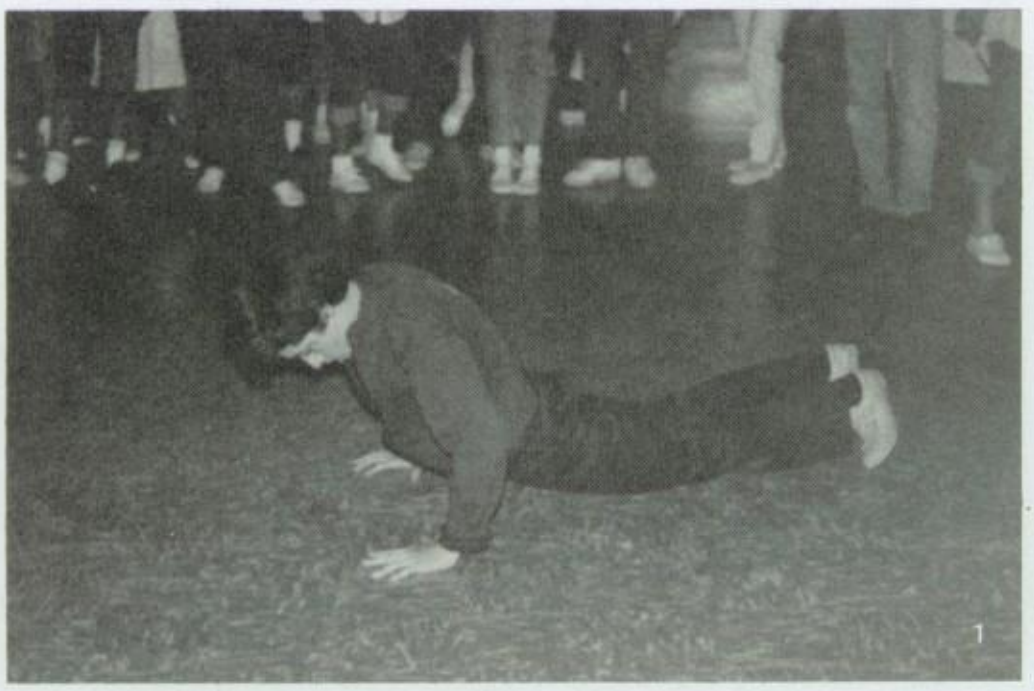
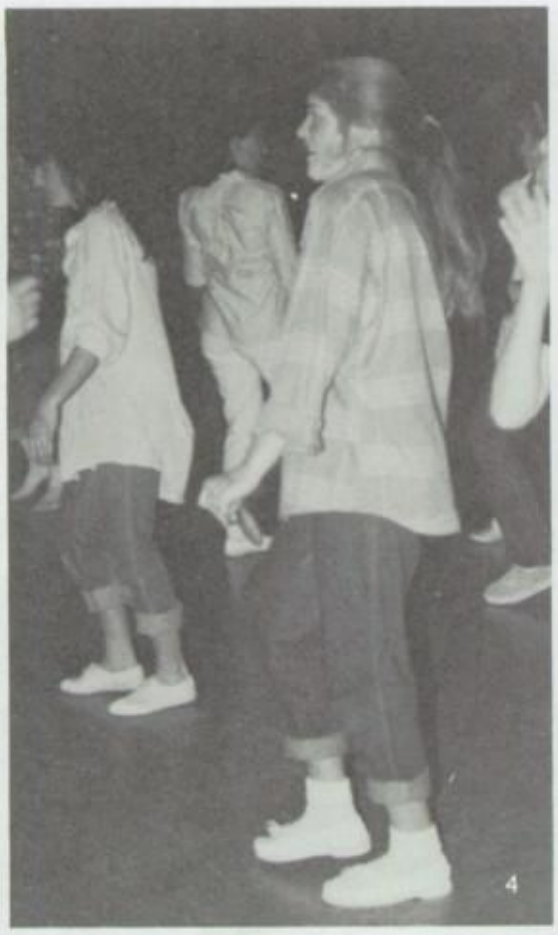
1983-1984 Dances

Another year has come and gone! What year could go by without having wonderful St. Gen's dances? They are so traditional, and all are a success. There have been a number of dances this year: Welcome Frosh, 50's, Christmas, and Homecoming. There will be more dances such as the Prom, St. Pat's, Valentine's and, let's not forget, the Cheerleaders' Dance. The dances are sponsored by the Clubs, Band, Entertainment Units, and the Cheerleaders. Thanks to these people and our wonderful staff, these dances turn out fun-filled and very memorable.





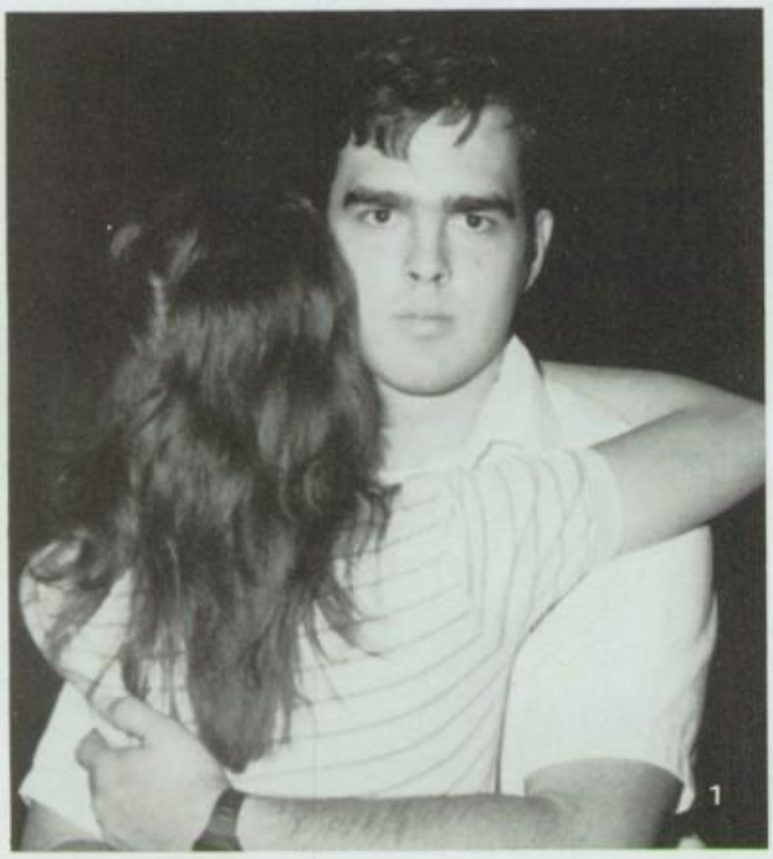
1. Break-dancing in the hall.
2. Ruben Valls and Jacquelyn Nestor.
3. Frosh at the '50's dance.
4. Mary Kujawa dancing with herself.
5. Students dancing at Homecoming.
6. Mo Mc Carthy, grooving to the beat.
7. Students enjoying the dance.
8. Mike Schreiner "What a stud!".
9. Students from the class of '84, and a wonderful class at that, making more memories.
10. Fernando Reyna, the next Fonzie.

Spirit Come Alive

This year's pep rallies were the greatest ever. The students allowed themselves to exhibit their true school spirit through their actions at our rallies. The spirit that our students showed allowed them to come closer to one another and give their football and cheerleading teams the appreciation that they deserve. Valiants kept the spirit up no matter what happenened. May this spirit live long! GO VALIANTS!!!

1. Bystanders at a typical pep rally
2. Winners of Mr. and Mrs. Silver and Blue ... Seniors, of course
3. Gangsters of the Junior class
4. Pep rally spirit comes out in our Seniors
5. St. Gen's pep rallies make our students delirious
6. Sophomore hamming it up
7. Nucleus of our famous pep rallies

Christmas Dance

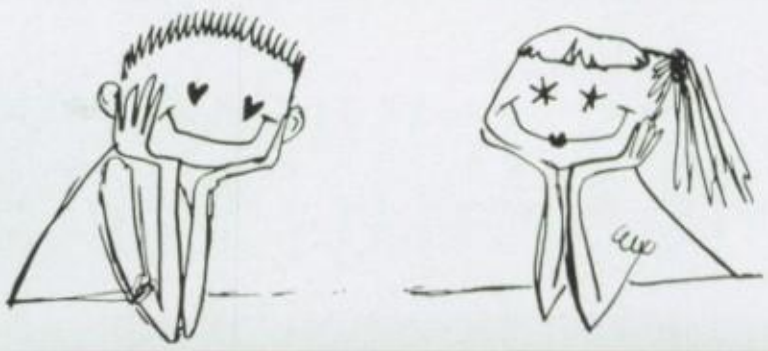


The Christmas Dance of the 1983-84 year was one of the biggest events of the school year. It was a great success thanks to the help of Michelle Larivee and the rest of the Pep Club members as well as the Model U.N.

1) Bill Mitchell dancing with a friend
2) Angela, Ernie, and Maria together, enjoying the dance
3) Students waiting for the next song
4) Peter Reyes and Company sitting on the sidelines
5) Students swaying to the music
6) Cheri, Lisa and Evan, with Tim Rooney's eyes in the background
7) Mary Costello and Amy Lormans having a good time
8) Freshmen girls clapping to the beat

Sweet Dreams: 1984 Style

The theme of the 1984 Valentine's Dance, sponsored by the Entertainment Units, was "Sweet Dreams", and it was a huge success. Of the 1984 court: Imelda Bermudez, Courtney Brown, Melissa Castro, Deeanne Lopez, Felicia Morgan, and Shauna O'Donoghue, Imelda Bermudez was crowned 1984 Valentine's Queen by former Queen, Deanna Le Vine. Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of "Front Seat". It proved to be "a night to remember."



1. Members of the court: Deanna Le Vine, Imelda Bermudez, and Shauna O'Donoghue. 2. The 1984 Queen Imelda Bermudez and the 1983 Queen, Deanna Le Vine with their escorts. 3. Deanna Le Vine and Ria Fiore. 4. The Seniors seem to enjoy themselves. 5. Nuccio Scattaglia, Mary Costello, Marcia Costello, and her escort. 6. Fina Guzman, her escort, Lucretia Guzman, and Rick Gillespie. 7. Imelda Bermudez and her escort dancing after she was crowned. 8. Beth Boyle and Monica Shaules with their escorts.

St. Genevieve High School Celebrates Its 25th Anniversary

By the late 1950's, it became evident to the Pastor of St. Genevieve Parish, Reverend Michael J. Ryan, that educational needs of young parishioners were not being met. Realizing that the present elementary school was not sufficient, he ordered the construction of a high school in January of 1959.

In May of that year, the first Principal of the school, Sister Jeanne Celeste, C.S.J., conducted the initial registration of students for the upcoming year. The original plans were to open the first building in September, 1959, but a construction delay, forced the first four months of classes to be held in a section of the elementary school.

St. Genevieve High School was officially opened on January 4, 1960, the day after the feast of St. Genevieve. Dedication ceremonies were conducted on October 16 by Cardinal James Francis McIntyre.

As time progressed, student enrollment increased, and the school had to be doubled in size. Construction began, and the end result was buildings containing twenty-five classrooms, a cafeteria, a hall, a Physical Education building, and a shower and locker building. In the Seventies, further expansion provided office space, a faculty lounge, a library, and a student chapel.

In 1963, the true establishment of St. Genevieve High School came to an end with the graduation of the first Senior Class. At that time, the enrollment of the school was nearly 700. Since then the enrollment has increased to the current figure well in excess of 900.

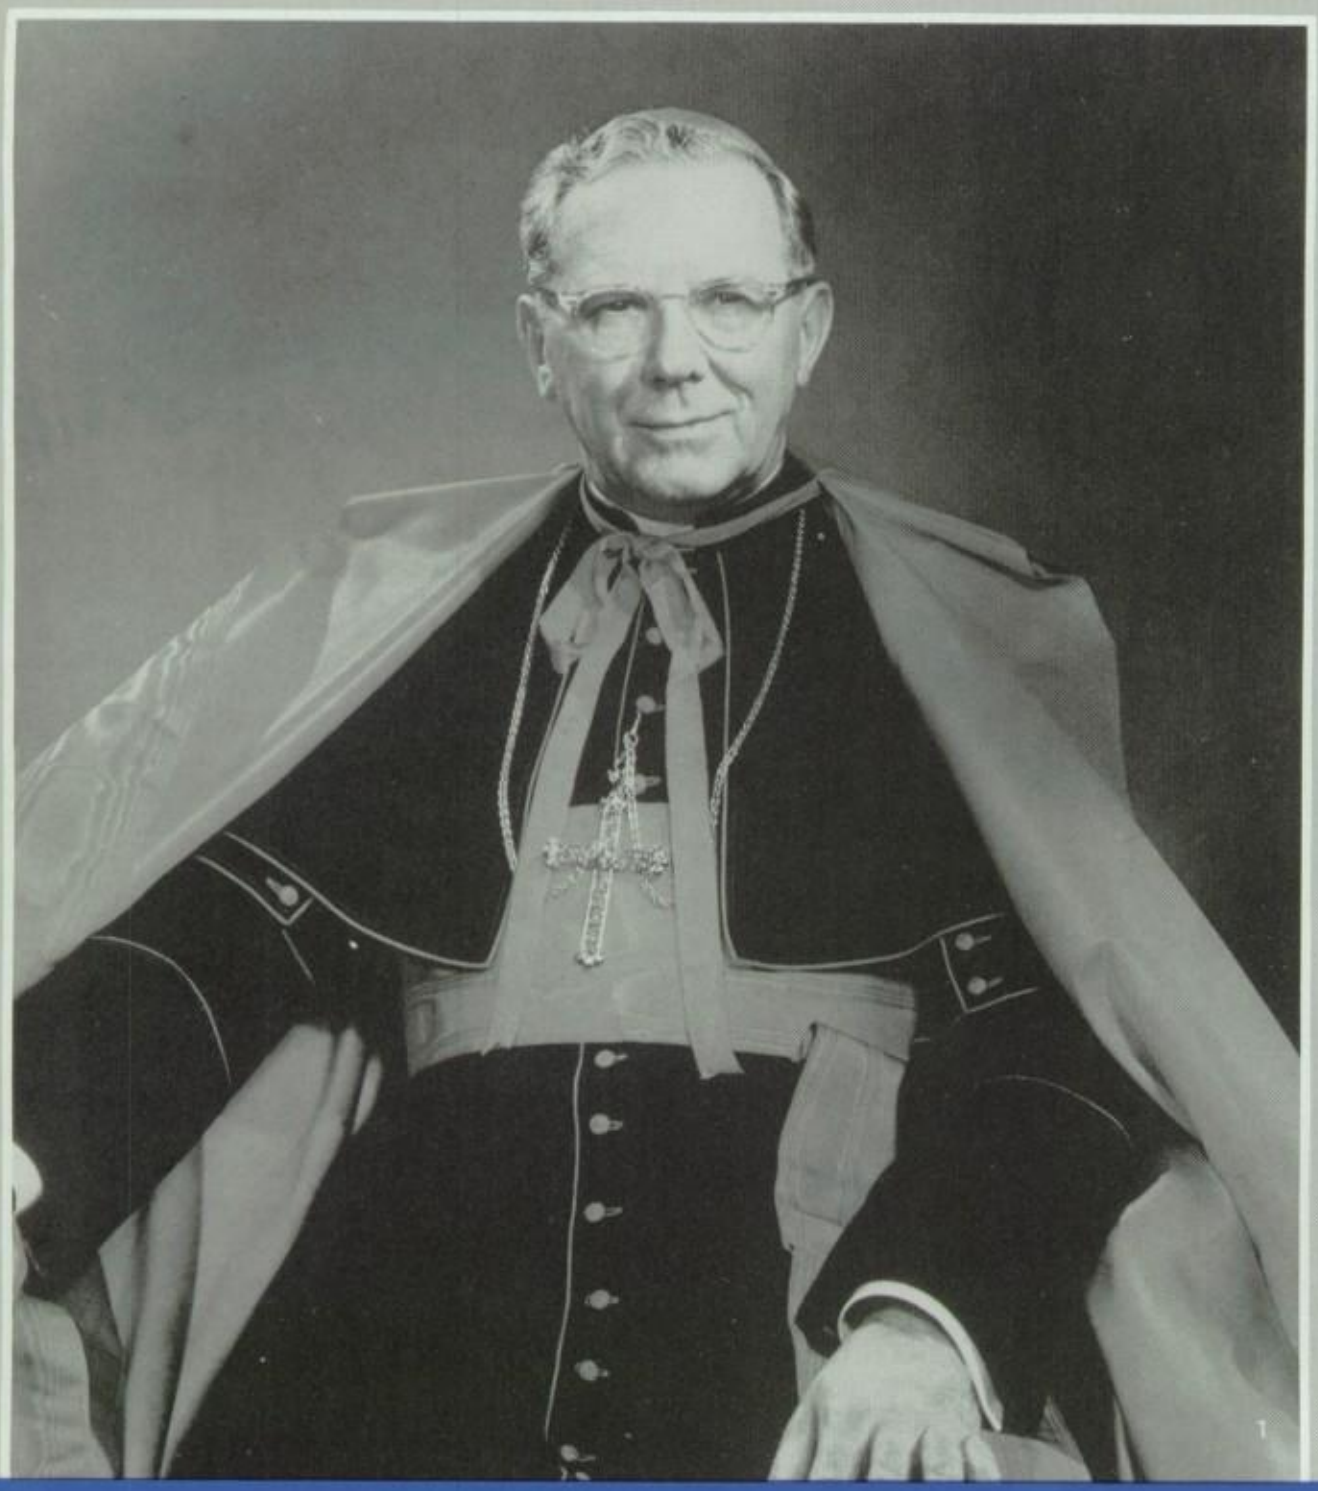
The Real



In 1950, the official action that created Saint Genevieve Parish was taken by His Eminence Cardinal James Francis McIntyre when he appointed Reverend Michael J. Ryan as the founding pastor. By January 26, 1951, the new church and elementary school were under construction and by August 26, 1951, the church was opened for the celebration of St. Genevieve's first Mass.

In January of 1959 construction of the high school began, and the school opened its doors on January 4, 1960. The first principal of the high school, appointed by Father Ryan, was Sister Jeanne Celeste, C.S.J. Sister was followed by Sister Dolorosa, C.S.J., Father Lawrence Walsh, Father Roland Zimmerman, Monsignor Thomas A. Kiefer, Father John F. Venegas, SS.CC., and now Father Frank Doherty, SS.CC. Father Michael J. Ryan, first pastor of St. Genevieve Parish, was succeeded by Monsignor Thomas A. Kiefer, then came our present pastor, Father John V. Cosgrove.

Choreographers Show Their Talent

1983-1984 Cheerleading squad was quite memorable. Both the Varsity and the J.V. attended cheerleading camp at Santa Barbara, where they learned new cheers and chants. The Freshmen cheerleaders were added to the squad in September. Through Pep Rallies and spirited cheering at the games, they gave inspiration to all the teams. The squads were led by Varsity Captain Sally Larson and Co-Captain Elena Kneip.

1. All three squads from left to right: Varsity: Sally Larson, Lynda Gutierrez, Coleen Driscol, Kate O'Connor, Deanna LeVine, Irmina Gomez, Alicia Ruiz, Elena Kneip, Sally Guy, Detra Jones; J.V.: Christina Mullins, Deanna Figueroa, Alisa Solis, Saadae Arias, Laura Bohamed, Mia DeLeon, Stephanie Espinoza; Freshmen: Heather Johnson, Celina Barba, Kim Loll, Kathy Schuetz, Dana Haith, Stephanie Carr. 2. Sally Guy and Irmina Gomez, the "Awesome Twosome," leading a cheer at a Pep Rally. 3. Varsity cheerleaders showing off for the camera. 4. Saadae Aris and Alisa Solis cheering on the J.V.'s. 5. Christian Unity Club

The Christian Unity Club has been moderated this year by Miss Patricia DeCoker and Miss Diana Garske. This year the club has pursued its tradition of serving the community. Among other things, they made food baskets for Thanksgiving and distributed them to needy families. They also did a very good job organizing the student body Christmas Mass. They plan to continue their programs to give service to the community throughout the year.

ATHLETICS

Valiants Defend League Title

Despite losing the first five games of a tough preseason, the Valiants managed to become Santa Fe League Champions again, sharing the title with Chaminade. The offense, led by tight end Joel DeGagne and scrambling quarterback Tim Lee, had opposing players reading the numbers on their backs. The defense was anchored by All-Leaguers Tim Reardon, John Bender, Sam Russo, Mike Pyle, and DeGagne. Making the playoffs this year, the Valiants fought hard but lost to eventual CIF Champion Atascadero, 26-7.

Frosh (3-4-1)

This year's J.V. Football Team was ably coached by the well-experienced Bob Peters. The "mutts", as they were called, were led by the great passing attack of Andy Sherman and the running abilities of Chris Torres and Leti Moso. The reason for these players performing so well was the vicious blocking of the offensive line. Defensively, the team was led by David Nickels at line backer, Rocco Cordola at tackle, and Steve Escovar at strong safety. Along with the rest of the defense, they caused four shutouts during the course of the season.

Varsity Volleyball

This year, the Varsity Volleyball Team again held a 13-6 overall record with the help of Team Captain Mary Kujawa and Coach Judy Leytus, and had a 7-5 record in league games. The team had their first triumph over Louisville in history and went on to include victories over Alemany and Immaculate Heart. The team was further honored by Mary Kujawa, who made 1st team All-League, and Cheryl Macrorie and Cheri Kexcon who both made 2nd team All-League. All of this added up to a very exciting season for the Mighty Valiants.

Cross Country CIF Ranked

The Cross Country team enjoyed many successes this year. The varsity team earned a second place trophy at the prestigious Mt. San Antonio Invitational. The frosh/soph team won a second place trophy at the Northridge Invitational. The Valiants were led by Reggie Dechard, team captain and most valuable runner.

Reggie Dechard and Hector Ruiz both placed among the top seven runners in the league and were awarded Santa Fe League first team honors.

James Kedrowski was the team's most improved runner. Coach's awards went to Hector Ruiz and John Rodriguez.

The highlight of the season came when Reggie Dechard set a new school record at the Hansen Dam home course and Hector Ruiz set a new frosh-soph record.

The Valiants ended the season ranked among the top ten teams in their division of CIF.

My life was like a rose in spring.

As a child, life always seemed so wonderful,
And the petals of the rose began to unfold.

As I grew older, I learned many things.
Some good, some bad, but all interesting.
Day by day through my years I grew to know God.
And the rose expanded a little farther.

Now I lie here at the age of sixteen,
And I know the unknown: life after death.
I am perfectly content and happier than I've ever been.
The rose is now in full bloom.

"The Value of Patience"

I wait and hope;
Someday my search will end.
I may wait days, weeks, months, even years,
But I am patient.

Life is not easy; everywhere I look
Something is not right.
But I wait;
I am patient.

I know not what my destiny holds,
But this I do know:
As long as I remain patient,
Peace and happiness will be waiting for me.

My First Love

We met one summertime on the beach
I saw him looking up to the sky.
I interrupted his daydreaming
And introduced myself. He smiled.
His name was Elmer.
That day was the beginning of a new friendship.
We met on the beach everyday.
We talked and built sand castles.
We spent the whole summer together ...
We fell in love.
School started and we parted.
We promised we would write to each other,
We did for a while.
The last I heard from him was that
He told me to forget him.
I tried, but I couldn't ...
  I loved him
Summer came, and I went back to the beach.
I was hoping I would see him there.
But I didn't.
Then, curiosity struck me. I went to his house
Just to see how he was doing.
His mother answered the door.
She told me what had happened.
Elmer had died of cancer that winter ...
  My first love was gone.
The next day, I went to the beach - alone.
I looked up to the sky,
And whispered softly, "I love you, Elmer."

Uniform Blues

There once was a girl at St. Gen's,
Whose sweaters were borrowed from friends.
  When Father asked why,
  She said with a sigh,
"Old Nally can't keep up with trends!"

My Mother

Why is my mother so special to me?
I really can't say why
But when she smiles
I feel really good inside.

With all the work she does
I think it would be boring
But she is proud of her work,
And "returns" she never asks for.

So often, through my lifetime
When the sky has been gray or blue,
I've wanted to say, "I love you, Mom,"
In a very special way.

There are times when my mothers words
Make me feel good inside
And give me the assurance
That makes life worthwhile.

God made everything
Including me.
But when He made my mother,
Then God created love.

"Are You Not My Brother?"

Are you not my brother
Even though I'm white and you're black?

Can't we be friends?
Even though my culture differs from yours?

Are we not equal in God's eyes
Even though others say we are not?

Why has prejudice poisoned our minds?
Turned brother against brother?
Man against man?

The Only God

I asked myself,
"Where is God and how shall I find him?"

"I know," I thought.
"He is surely at the top of the highest mountain or at the bottom of the deepest valley."
And so I searched both places;
And He was there.
But this was not the God I wanted.

And so I searched throughout the land, and thought,
"I know - God is sure to be in the flowers and trees."
And I was right,
for He was there.
But neither was this the God that I longed for.

And so, confused, again I asked myself,
'Where is God and how shall I find Him?"
The God I'm searching for is not in nature or places.
Where is He?
And I looked around.
I could see nothing -
Nothing.
"Maybe," I thought,
"just maybe,
God is in me."
No.

"Maybe the God I am looking for is in other people."
And so I looked and studied hard:
my family, friends, and strangers.
And yes, yes, I found God in them, also.
But this was not the kind of God I wanted.

Finally, full of anguish, I cried out,
"God, where are you?"
I turned once again to myself, and searched all corners of my heart.
Yes, here is where God dwells!
And, yes, this is the God that I want,
My God!

Now that I have found God in myself,
I realize that He is also the God of the mountains and valleys,
of the flowers and trees,
the God of you, and the God of me,
the same God,
the one God,
the only God.

Dreams Fragility

It's a web like a spider's web
Made of silver streaks and shadows,
Spun by the moon in my room at night.
It's a web designed to catch a dream;
It holds the dream, a guard through day and night.
My eyes are blinded by it's silver streaks.
Above this web, lies, suspended, the dream,
Which the web dangles as luscious temptation seemingly within my reach.
They as if repelled by human approach,
It pulls away.
I reach a little farther but the silvery web seems to convey a message:
"Go away, not yet, your time will come!"
I play a game of "wait and see" and formulate a trickery;
Then catching the moon-made web off-guard,
My tenacity conquers the cradle of my dreams;
But upon the touch, the web shatters, the dream escapes
. . . the touch was premature.

There was a web like a spider web.
T'was made of silver light and shadows. . .
But now no more it hovers above my head, the web
Be more patient next time!

On Rainy Days

The day she left me there was rain-
A weeping for a heart just slain.
When I look back, my spirits wane,
For on my heart she left a stain.

I try to think we never were,
But then my thoughts turn back to her
And all she said to make me sure
That we could not be more secure.

So now whene'er I see the rain,
Recalled each time is this refrain;
"The hurt I feel is heartfelt pain
When love I seek is sought in vain."

Searching For Poet Laureate

In 1972 (in first grade) Steve Parco, ('84) wrote these "poems." How's this for internal rhyme?

The balloon can not go to the moon.
Some are round and stay on the ground.
And All colors. White is a fright when they pop at night.

And the use of apostrophes?

The snow fall's on the ground.
You can make ball's that are round.
the Snow is cold on your toe's.
It can give you frost Bite on your noes.
the End.

Just For Me

I have a monster living in my room.
Each night, he makes his presence known to me.
He doesn't know it, but to tell the truth,
He's really such a funny sight to see!
He's short and fat. He's covered with green hair
And great big purple polka-dotted eyes.
He jumps out of my closet with a "thump!"
And growls at me, and then he yells, "Surprise!"
He doesn't shock me, only makes me laugh.
"You scared me!" Giggling, then, I tell the lie
For fear as once before (the night we met),
He'd cover up his face and start to cry.
It really doesn't bother me to play
His silly games, because he is my friend.
And he has introduced me to the world
Of dreams, and "Make-Believe," and "Let's Pretend."
He'll sit down with a "squish" and tell me tales,
Or start a game of "Hide-and-Seek" or "Tag."
He's always "It," (It's hard for him to hide
His great big feet or furry arms that sag!)
He makes me happy, shows me a good time.
He says he'll be around until I'm old
Enough to stand my ground, and face the norm,
That is, until I'm strong, secure, and bold!
I'll miss him when he goes, I love him so,
And when he goes, I know I'll miss him more!
How sad to think someday he'll leave my side!
I needn't worry now ... I'm only four!

ON YOUTH

YOUTH is not entirely a time of life - it is a state of mind. It is not wholly a matter of ripe cheeks, red lips or supple knees. It is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions.

NOBODY grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old only by deserting their ideals . . . You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope, as old as your despair.

IN the central place of every heart, there is a recording chamber; so long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer and courage, so long are you young.

WHEN the wires are all down and your heart is covered with the snows of pessimism and the ice of cynicism, then, and then only, are you grown old.

From an address by
General Douglas MacArthur
ON THE OCCASION OF HIS
75th BIRTHDAY, JAN. 26, 1955

DIRECTORS

Leadership And Inspiration

Saint Genevieve High School has been in existence for twenty-five years. During that time, it has earned a well-deserved reputation for being a school which merits high respect. Seldom do we acknowledge the great leaders who keep this institution on its feet. With great respect, we dedicate these pages in honor of these beloved people: Timothy Cardinal Manning, President of the Archdiocesan Board of Education, Msgr. Jeremiah Murphy, Superintendent of Secondary Education, Father John Cosgrove, Parish Pastor, and our Principal, Father Frank Doherty.

The 1983 Mock Trial wishes to thank the faculty and students who supported us in this year's competition We greatly appreciated it. Thanks!

Steve, 83-84, was the best! I love you always, Ria. To everyone, especially, Kim, Dee, Tim, Dave, and Ernie — we've had great times — I love you guys!

Good Luck to my T.R. Gang
(Sara, Marie, & Shirley)

Luv ya,
Deborah

To the whole gang! Thanks for the past four years, you're the best! Chicken Pig! Valiant mobile lives on! OOoooo Doctor! Amers—I wuv ya. "OH WELL." Hey Dottle!

Luv ya,

Editor's Page

The images captured within the pages of the Nanterrian, 1984, will remain constant long after memories blur, and then fade.

If someday you should forget, and remember only a part of this year, I sincerely hope that you will look back upon the pages of this yearbook and smile.

This yearbook is the final result of the time and effort put in by a dedicated staff. Looking back at the past year I would like to thank the following:

Father Frank, the faculty, and the administration for their patience and support.

Paul Collins, our Josten's/American Yearbook representative.

Bill Christy, for his professional photographic work.

Our photographers, Darrin Goode, Frank Hokr, and Romeo Reyes, who gave much of their free time and photographic skills to meet deadlines.

Our artists, Sue Cabrera and Joel DeGagne, who beautifully designed our cover and division pages.

The creative writers, the layout staff, and the editors, who have worked hard to make this yearbook special.

Sister Angela Clare, who patiently proofread all copy to ensure a book of quality.

Our sponsors and advertisers for their support.

And, especially, Mrs. Nancy Patten, our advisor for the Nanterrian, 1984, who encouraged, gave ideas, and did her best to push us to the very end. We couldn't have done it without her.
